

Giving Hope Today

Media Release

Contacts: Hamilton Concert Band – Ben Gesch 905-628-1380 (work)
City Kidz – David Milmine 905-545-3014
Salvation Army – Church Office 905-573-0635

For Immediate Release

Event Date – February 23, 2008

Hamilton Concert Band
and Winterberry Heights Salvation Army Band present

Joy in the City

"Music washes away from the soul the dust of everyday life."

Berthold Auerbach

Hamilton Concert Band and Conductor Bobby Herriot are proud to partner with Bandmaster Bern Noakes and his Salvation Army Band and City Kidz for an enjoyable evening of music. On February 23, 2008 there will be presentations by each band as well as combined band numbers, guest soloists and presenter David Millmine of City Kidz. The proceeds from this concert help to support City Kidz work in downtown Hamilton and the Hamilton Concert Band.

Please join us on February 23, 2008 at 7:00 p.m. at Winterberry Heights Church, 300 Winterberry Drive, Stoney Creek. Tickets for the event are available from any band member or at the door for $10 for adults, $7 for children 12 and under and seniors.

Hamilton Concert Band Mission: The objectives of the Band are to provide an outlet for the local musicians to display their talents, and to provide good concert band music and low cost entertainment for the public.

Hamilton Concert Band is composed of local volunteer musicians who are encouraged to play to their potential and have fun too. We believe in helping the communities that we live in by giving back to them and adding entertainment to their lives. Hamilton Concert Band is a registered charity.

We look forward to seeing you on February 23, 2008!

Thank you for your time. For more information please see the attached poster and feel free to call Ben Gesch at 905.628.1380 (8:30-4:30pm) or email president@hamiltonband.org.

Danielle Dean-Alton
Hamilton Concert Band, Advertising